NAG / DAGA 2009

International Conference on Acoustics

23 – 26 March 2009, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

The International Conference on Acoustics, the NAG / DAGA 2009, includes the 35th German Annual Conference on Acoustics (DAGA) and will be held in Rotterdam at the city's major conference centre and the country's largest concert hall De Doelen.

The conference is organised by the Acoustical Society of the Netherlands (NAG) and the German Acoustical Society (DEGA) in co-operation with the Belgian Acoustical Society (ABAV) and the European Acoustics Association (EAA).

The conference will feature precolloquia, plenary sessions, poster presentations, exhibits and over 400 invited and contributed papers in structured parallel sessions. The following list gives an impression of the topics of the scientific program:

Topics

Active noise control	Hearing protection	Room acoustics
Audiological acoustics	Hydro-acoustics	Signal processing
Audio technology	Machine acoustics	Structure-borne sound
Building acoustics	Measurement engineering	Speech
Bio-acoustics	Medical acoustics	Soundscape
Education in acoustics	Musical acoustics	Ultrasounds
Effects of noise	Noise propagation	Vehicle acoustics
Electro-acoustics	Noise control	Vibration acoustics
Environmental noise	Numerical acoustics	Virtual acoustics
Evaluation of noise	Physical acoustics	and other fields
Flow acoustics	Psychoacoustics

Submission

Authors are invited to submit their abstracts (English) to the scientific committee of the NAG / DAGA 2009. The NAG / DAGA 2009 website www.nag-daga.nl will provide you with further details. Please note that the submission deadline is strict.
